PROPOSED LEGISLATION

An Act

To increase the rate of compensation of the Director of Central Intelligence and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED,

Sec. 1. 50 U.S.C. 403(a) is hereby amended by deleting the figure "$16,000" and substituting in lieu thereof the figure "$20,000."

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Increases compensation of DCI which was $14,000 per National Security Act of 1947 and increased to $16,000 by Executive Pay Bill of October 15, 1949.

Amends Sec. 102(b)(2) of Nat. Sec. Act of 1947 to give military man serving as DCI straight pay and allowances of a General and eliminate payment of difference between military pay and stated civilian salary.

Note: Take home pay on $20,000 based on one dependent and including deduction for retirement, computed under 1951 tax rates amounts to $14,178, while that of a General is $14,566.94. Take home pay on $16,000 is $11,468.

Corrects printing error in CIA Act of 1949, Sec. 10(a)(1) which omits reference to chapter.

Sec. 4. 50 U.S.C. 4031 is hereby repealed. Repeals Sec. 9 of CIA Act which provides for three positions in professional or scientific field with ceiling of $15,000. No longer necessary since we have authority to appoint super grades as necessary.

Sec. 5. The Central Intelligence Agency is hereby exempted from the provisions of the "Performance Rating Act of 1950," (64 Stat. 1098).

Because of security reasons it is impossible to comply with the review and inspection provisions of that Act. The Civil Service Commission has indicated that it will give its support in this matter.

Sec. 6. 50 U.S.C. 403e(3)(A) is amended to read as follows:

"Grant leave of absence to such officers and employees without regard to any other leave provided by law, for use in the United States, its territories or possessions, at a rate equivalent to one week for each four months' of service outside the several States and the District of Columbia. Such leave may be accumulated for future use without regard to Sec. 203(c) of the 'Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951' (65 Stat. 680) but no such leave which is not used shall be made the basis for any terminal leave or lump sum payment; PROVIDED, That Sec. 203(d) of the 'Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951' (65 Stat. 680) shall not apply to such officers and employees assigned to permanent-duty stations outside the several States and District of Columbia."

The new subsection (A) will permit accumulation of "home leave" for people on foreign duty. It embodies provisions which have been granted to Foreign Service personnel.

Subsection 203(d) provides for a 90 day accumulation of leave for personnel overseas except for Foreign Service personnel. The proposed language would bring CIA in line with Foreign Service.

Sec. 7 50 U.S.C. 403 is further amended by the addition of a new subparagraph to read as follows:

(g) Deputy Directors; appointment and compensation

(1) There shall be a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence who shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and who shall receive

Amends Executive Pay Bill of October 15, 1949 wherein compensation of D/DCI was set at $14,000, establishes D/DCI as statutory position and provides for compensation at the rate of $17,500 a year. The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as shall be prescribed by the Director of Central Intelligence or by law and shall act for, and exercise the powers of, the Director during his absence or disability.

"(2) In addition to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, the Director of Central Intelligence is authorized to appoint three Deputy Directors, each of whom shall receive compensation at the rate of $16,000 a year and who shall perform such duties as the Director may prescribe."

Sec. 8. Any commissioned officer of the Armed Forces on active duty who is appointed, ordered or detailed to serve with the Central Intelligence Agency shall be excluded from the numbers of Department of Defense military and naval personnel otherwise authorized and appropriated for.

Sec. 9. All laws or part of laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

three additional Deputy Directors as statutory positions.

For security reasons and with particular reference to the identity of the DD/P, provision for appointment by the President with advice and consent of the Senate is omitted.

Exempts any commissioned officer from the so-called "Davis Amendment", (See Sections 608 and 634 of the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1953), limiting total number of officers in certain grades in the various branches of the Armed Forces, to certain percentages of the over-all strength.
